

NEW 3M™ Imperial™ Roloc™ Discs

The Toughest Just Got Tougher

3M™ Made Their Highest Quality Discs Even Better

- Cooler Running
- Faster Cutting
- Longer Lasting
- Self Sharpening

Use Imperial™ Roloc™ for:

- Weld Grinding
- Paint Removal
- Metal Grinding

PMI 3M™ Imperial™ Roloc™ Starter Kit

The PMI Roloc™ Starter Kit includes five discs each of 24, 36, 50 and 80 grit Imperial™ Roloc™ sanding and grinding discs, plus two Imperial™ Roloc™ CCR discs, and one Roloc™ Disc Pad Assembly.

PMIMMMIMP01

If there's one thing that makes Imperial™ Roloc™ abrasives better than the competition, it's a specially formulated synthetic material called "Cubitron". The Cubitron™ abrasive grain is a ceramic material with a unique micro structure that sharpens as it wears. These sharp cutting edges result in high cut rates, long life and amazing consistency. Cubitron™ abrasives outperform all conventional materials for fracture toughness and durability. Discs last so long most users see a significant reduction in the number they have to buy.

Powered by 3M™ Cubitron™ Abrasive Self Sharpening Technology

After initial grinding, stresses break away a small portion of the grain. 3M™ Cubitron™ grains fracture along micro-cracks creating a self-sharpening surface. This process repeats itself throughout the grinding process, and that means longer abrasive life and improved grinding efficiency over conventional abrasive grains.

More Durable, Flexible Plastic Backing

Paper disc backings lack durability. Cloth backings separate and fray. Imperial™ Roloc™ discs' revolutionary molded-plastic backing provides increased durability for the toughest grinding applications, while maintaining flexibility to conform to contours and edges.

The 3M™ patented coating permanently anchors the mineral to the backing, reducing shelling, as well as, preventing undesirable loading of debris into the abrasive.
